|   | Name:   |
|---|---|
| Proper Nouns, Common Nouns, and CapitalizationCapitalization Rules             |   |
| Directions: underline each letter that should be capit                             | alized. Explain why it should be capitalized. |
| 1. you really only have one good chance to get an education.                              |   |
| Why capitalize?   |   |
| 2. I'm going to the park with my friend kathy and my                                      |   |
| Why capitalize?   |   |
| 3. Paul's class schedule said he was taking american history, spanish, english, and math. |   |
| Why capitalize?   |   |
| 4. Kyle tied up on his nike air force ones, ate a big n                                   | nac, and drank a cherry coke.                 |
| Why capitalize?   |   |
| 5. The chicago river runs into the mississippi valley waterways.                          |   |
| Why capitalize?   |   |
| Common Nouns to Proper NounsDirections: Change each common noun into a proper noun.   |   |
| 1. car:   | 2. restaurant:                                |
| 3. student:   | 4. state:                                     |
| 5. video game:  |   |
| 7. teacher:   | 8. magazine:                                  |
| 9. song:  | 10. movie:                                    |

Capitalization Tasks

Directions: on the back or a separate sheet of paper, write original sentences each of the following tasks. Make sure you capitalize the appropriate letters in your sentences.

- 1. Write a sentence that mentions a clothing store and one of your family members.
- 2. Write a sentence that mentions a famous actor or actress and a movie.
- 3. Write a sentence that mentions a TV show and a snack product.
- 4. Write a sentence that mentions a foreign country, a sport, and an athlete.
- 5. Write a sentence that includes three course titles (classes).